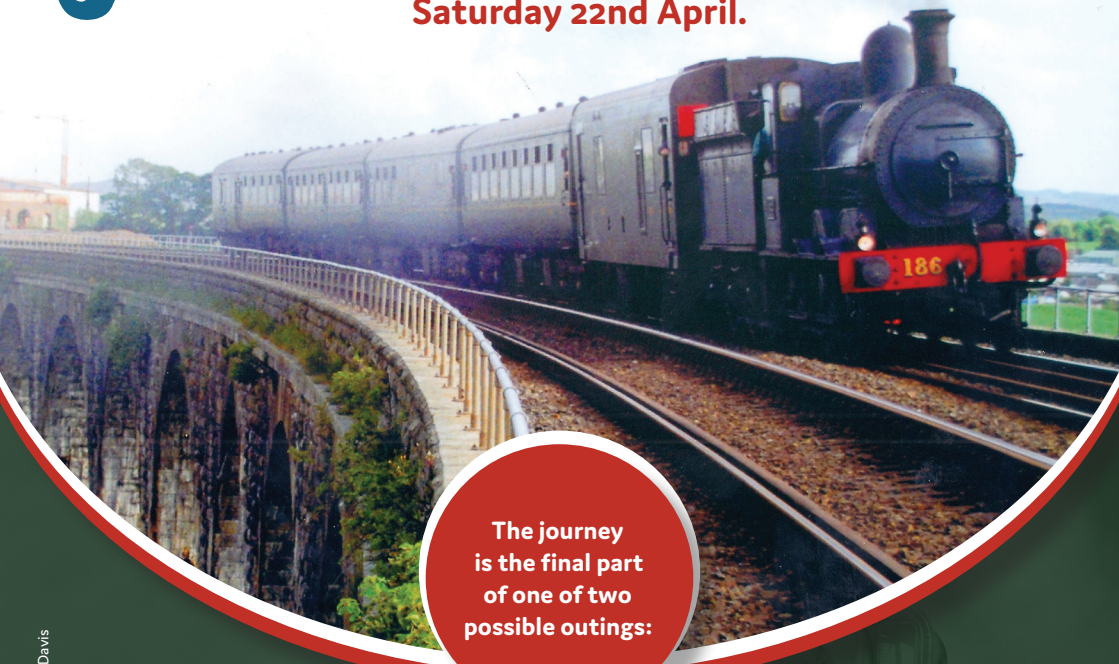
To Newry, From Whitehead
Once in a lifetime steam train journey.
Saturday 22nd April.



Photography by John Davis

The journey is the final part of one of two possible outings:

Carrickfergus Castle and Museum - £25 per person

The local museum interpreting the long and distinguished history of the town and surrounding area, with artefacts of treasure excavated in Carrickfergus.

Besieged in turn by the Scots, Irish, English and French, Carrickfergus Castle played an important military role until 1928 and remains one of the best preserved medieval structures in Ireland.

Ulster Transport Museum - £30 per adult £25 per child

Step aboard majestic steam locomotives and explore horse drawn carriages, electric trams (including the Bessbrook Tram), boats, motorbikes, fire-engines and vintage cars in the Transport Museum.

The Transport Museum creatively displays one of Europe's largest and most comprehensive transport collections, from horse-drawn carriages to Irish built motor cars and from the mighty steam locomotives that graced our railways to the history of ship and aircraft building.

Price includes bus to Carrickfergus and train ride back to Newry.
Departure - 11.30am, Newry Railway Station.
